General Matters

PSC and Subcommittee Work	While the PSC functions independently of the negotiations process and all discussions are non-binding and not considered part of negotiations, the insights and analysis from the PSC and its subcommittees may be used by its members to inform the negotiating positions of their respective organizations. That said, the parties agree that any discussions or documents shared in the course of PSC activities cannot be relied upon or filed as evidence of the position of either party in any future arbitration pursuant to the Binding Arbitration Framework (BAF). For clarity, this does not include decisions that are made/policies that are implemented; however, it does include discussion and rationale leading to those decisions.
Commitment to Respectful Engagement	As an extension of the Physician Services Committee (PSC), the PSA Working Groups are committed to fostering and sustaining a respectful relationship amongst its members and expects its respective committee members to be guided by the same principles. In addition, all committees will be accountable under the relevant policies and procedures defined by their respective organization. Working Group members will foster and sustain a respectful relationship that values diversity and inclusion, dignity, courteous conduct, fairness, positive

	communication and professional relationships. Specifically, interactions that are discriminatory (based on dimensions of diversity, including ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, record of criminal offences, marital status, family status, disability, and language) are not acceptable conduct. In the event of a formal complaint arising from Working Group activities, each organization will rely on its own processes in place to address those complaints for their members. The Co-Chairs of the PSC will be made aware of the complaint and determine the steps, if any, to be taken to consider the complaint including determining which organization has jurisdiction. The parties agree to cooperate with one another during an investigation as required.
Guiding Principles	In fulfilling its objectives and mandate, the Working Groups will be informed by the following guiding principles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In recognition of the terms outlined in the PSA, the Working Groups will work diligently to remain within its mandate and agreed upon scope of work. As such, it may not be possible to agree on all aspects of workplans or initiatives but subject to any dispute resolution provided under the PSA the Working Group will do its best to charge forward and not wait for perfection. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ Parties will work together to mutually agree to seek the advice of external experts as required. This does not preclude the parties from independently consulting with experts and presenting that advice to the table.</li> </ul> </li> <li>• The Working Group will use data, where available, to make evidence-based decisions.</li> <li>• The Working Group will work together in a timely fashion on realistic timelines and goals.</li> <li>• If a quorum is reached then Working Group meetings should proceed.</li> <li>• Evaluation methods should involve minimal burden for physicians and should ensure differences in impact between sub-groups of physicians can be identified.</li> <li>• Solutions should be implemented with sub-group variability in mind, if required, and research should be undertaken as needed to better understand these differences where they apply.</li> <li>• Any changes or additions to the mandate must be approved by the PSC</li> <li>• Working groups will report back bi-annually to the PSC as per the timelines agreed to by the Parties</li> </ul>
